(b) what are the details of the stand of both the parties and extent of climbing down by each of them; and

(c) what would be the additional burden on the exchequer per year, per worker, as a result of the settlement ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SURFACE TRANSPORT (SHRI RAJESH PILOT) ; (a) and (b) The Federations of port and dock workers wanted parity with the employees in some major public sector units from the first year of the settlement in regard to minimum wage, fitment amout, incremental rates, house rent allowance, city compensatory allowance, transport subsidy, leave travel concession etc. and a wage settlement valid for 4 years. As a result of discussions, it has been agreed to bring the port and dock workers by and large on par with the employees of Indian Oil Corporation Limited in most respects by the last year of the settlement which will be valid for 5 years.

(c) There is no burden on the exchequer as a result of the settlement, as the entire payment, will be made out of the funds of major port trusts and dock labour boards which are autonomous organisations.
